Notes on books

Fiberscopy of Gastric Diseases edited by Kenji Tsuneoka, Tadayoshi Takemoto, and Sotaro Fukuchi. (Pp. ix + 243, illustrated (some colour plates). $65.00.) Igaku Shoin Ltd. 1973. This diagnostic atlas with 255 colour fiberoptic photographs and 150 black and white illustrations records the experiences of one of the leading endoscopic teams in Japan. It includes an excellent historical review and extensive practical details with sections on photography, biopsy, and polypectomy. There is a comprehensive list of the world literature.

Annual Medical Reviews

Gastroenterology cannot be divorced from general medicine and these three annual reviews are always of special interest.

Advanced Medicine Symposium 10 edited by J. G. G. Ledingham. (Pp. xii + 472, illustrated. £6.00) Pitman Medical in association with the Journal of the Royal College of Physicians, London, 1974. This is the proceedings of a conference held at the Royal College of Physicians in London in 1974 and it includes sections on immunology and the gut, cholera, and cyclic AMP and diarrhoea.

The Medical Annual edited by Sir Ronald Bodley Scott and R. Milnes Walker. (Pp. xxviii + 5241 illustrated. £7.00) J. Wright and Sons, Ltd, Bristol, 1974. The gastroenterology section is covered by Sir Francis Avery Jones, Sir James Fraser, Professor J. C. Goligher, Professor Sheila Sherlock, and Mr J. E. Traub-Neell.

Year Book of Medicine 1974 edited by David E. Rogers and others. (Pp. 702, illustrated. £11.00.) Year Book Medical Publishers, Chicago, 1974. The section on the digestive system is totally 100 pages and is edited by Dr Norton J. Greenberger.

Correction

We much regret that the name of Wastell, editor of the book 'Chronic Duodenal Ulcer', was misprinted in Gut, 16, 164.
