International Medical Course

Gastroenterology: current issues in inflammatory bowel disease and colorectal cancer

16-23 March 1993, Birmingham

The course will review current issues and recent developments in inflammatory bowel disease and colorectal cancer. The course throughout will emphasize the medical and surgical collaboration required for optimal management. There will be opportunities to present current research work with discussion of the findings.

Director of Studies: Dr Robert Allan, Consultant Physician, The General Hospital, Birmingham; Mr John Fielding, Consultant Surgeon, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham; Professor Michael Keighley and Davindar Kumar, Department of Surgery, University of Birmingham.

The course is intended for physicians and surgeons with an interest in the management of inflammatory bowel disease and colorectal disease.

There are vacancies for 30 participants.

Fee: £1,225, fully inclusive.

The course sessions will take place at the Postgraduate Centre, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham. Participants will be accommodated in single study bedrooms with shower en suite at the Lucas House Conference Centre, Birmingham.

Further information and application forms are available from your local British Council office or from Courses Department, The British Council, 10 Spring Gardens, London SW1A 2BN.

An excellent beginner's guide

The extraordinary technical developments in molecular biology over the past few years, and the equally rapid advances in understanding of cell biology, will almost certainly result in far reaching changes in medical research and practice. In this collection of articles experts in molecular and cell biology provide the background information to give clinicians an insight into the way in which the medical sciences may be moving over the next few years and into the exciting possibilities opening up for the treatment of genetic disorders, cancer, and the common illnesses of Western society such as degenerative vascular disease and diabetes.

Gut

Journal of the British Society of Gastroenterology
A registered charity

Gut publishes original papers, leading articles, and reviews concerned with all aspects of the scientific basis of diseases of the alimentary tract, liver, and pancreas. Case reports will only be accepted if of exceptional merit. Letters related to articles published in Gut or with topics of general professional interest are welcomed. Authors should include the names and addresses of four experts whom the authors consider suitable to peer review their work.

COMMUNICATIONS Two copies of the manuscript and figures should be addressed to the Editor, Gut, BMA House, Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9JR, UK. Manuscripts should follow the Vancouver conventions (see BMJ 1979; i: 532-5. Gut 1979; 20: 651-2). They should be in double-spaced typewriting on one side of the paper only. The title page should include the name of the author with initials or distinguishing first name only, and the name and address of the hospital or laboratory where the work was performed. The paper must include a precise summary of the work of less than 200 words. Use of abbreviation is discouraged. A separate covering letter signed by all authors must state that the data have not been published elsewhere in whole or in part and that all authors agree to publication in Gut. Previous publication in abstract form must be disclosed in a footnote. Papers must not be published elsewhere without prior permission of the Editorial Committee.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF MANUSCRIPTS Manuscripts will only be acknowledged if an addressed postcard is enclosed.

ILLUSTRATIONS Photographs Unmounted photographs on glossy paper should be provided. Illustrations should not be inserted in the text but marked on the back with the figure numbers, title of paper and name of author. All photographs, graphs, diagrams should be referred to as figures and should be numbered consecutively in the text in Arabic numerals. The legends for illustrations should be typed on a separate sheet.

ETHICS Ethical aspects will be considered in the assessment of papers (see the Medical Research Council's publications on the ethics of human experimentation, and the World Medical Association's code of ethics, known as the Declaration of Helsinki (see BMJ 1964; ii: 177)).

SI UNITS All measurements except blood pressure are expressed in SI units. In tables and illustrations values are given in SI units. For general guidance on the International System of Units and some useful conversion factors, see The SI for Health Professions (WHO, 1977).
NB: Such conversion is the responsibility of the author.

REFERENCES These follow the Vancouver system - that is, references numbered consecutively in the text and listed numerically with journal titles abbreviated in the style of Index Medicus, Standard journal article. List up to six authors, then add et al.

CORRECTIONS other than printers' errors may be charged to the author.

REPRINTS Reprints will be available on payment of the necessary costs; the number of reprints required should be sent to the Publishing Manager on the form provided with the proof.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS All applications for advertisement space and rates should be addressed to the Advertisement Manager, Gut, BMA House, Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9JR.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS Gut is published monthly. The annual subscription rates are £157.00 (USA $255.00). Reduced subscriptions of £65.00 available to trainees for one year (direct only). Orders should be sent to the Subscription Manager, Gut, BMA House, Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9JR. Orders can also be placed with any leading subscription agent or bookseller. (For the convenience of readers in the USA subscription orders, with or without payment, can be sent to: British Medical Journal, Box 560B, Kennebunkport, Maine 04046. All enquiries, however, must be addressed to the Publisher in London.) Subscribers may pay for their subscriptions by Access, Visa, or American Express by quoting on their order the credit or charge card preferred together with the appropriate personal account number and the expiry date of the card. All overseas copies of the journal are sent by accelerated surface post. If required, full air mail rates and enquiries for single copies already published should be addressed to the Publisher in London.
