

Supplementary Figure S1. Redundancy analysis model, based on the microbiota profiles of duodenal biopsies. Health status was used as a driver to generate the model, distinguishing FD patients (blue) and controls (red) based on their microbiota ($p = 0.02$). Redundancy is plotted against the first principle component, with the percentage of variation explained by each axis is shown in brackets.

