

Survival analysis was performed to study the association between various antibiotics and ADA formation

Primary exposures:
Most commonly prescribed antibiotics

A covariate for each antibiotic class

Secondary effects (confounders):
IBD therapy, hospitalizations, surgical procedures

Changes in the status of exposures over the duration of follow-up were captured and analyzed (time varying covariates)

